Overview

- Purpose of the Brown Act
- Application of the Brown Act
- Serial Meetings
- Rules Governing Meetings
- Violations
- Brown Act and COVID-19 Response

The Ralph M. Brown Act

- In 1951, S.F. Chronicle reporter Mike Harris spent six weeks looking into how local agencies conducted meetings
- State law had required business to be done in public, but Harris discovered secret meetings or caucuses were common
- Harris wrote a 10-part series on “Your Secret Government” that ran in 1952

The Ralph M. Brown Act

- Out of the series came a push for new state open meeting laws
- Assemblymember Ralph M. Brown authored the law
- The “Brown Act” has evolved under a series of amendments and court decisions, and has been the model for other open meeting laws

Purpose of Brown Act

To ensure that almost all aspects of the decision-making process of legislative bodies of local agencies are conducted in public and open to public scrutiny.

“The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created.”

(Gov. Code § 54950.)

Application

To whom does the act apply?

- “Meetings” of legislative bodies of local agencies
 - Including persons elected to legislative bodies, even prior to assuming office

Application

- Local Agency
 - A city, county, city and county, town, school district, special district political subdivision, or any board, commission or agency thereof, or other local public agency
 - Includes joint powers agencies, like OCPA
- Legislative Body
 1. Governing body
 2. Board, commission, committee created by formal action of the governing body (e.g., Community Advisory Committee)
 3. Private organizations (in limited circumstances)

The Key to the Brown Act

- All meetings shall be open and public except when the Brown Act authorizes otherwise

Application

- What is a meeting?
- When is a meeting not a meeting?

Application

- Meeting

- Any gathering of a majority of the members at the same time and place (even electronically) to hear, discuss or deliberate upon any matter under their jurisdiction
- No action needs to be taken for a meeting to occur
- Conversations, sharing of comments/questions, collective exchange of facts, etc. between and among members of a legislative body about agency issues is sufficient

Application

- Not a Meeting

- Individual contacts (less than a quorum)
- Conferences and seminars
- Community meetings
- Purely social or ceremonial occasions
- Attendance at standing committee meetings
- Meetings of other legislative bodies – majority of body may attend as long as they do not discuss among themselves issues related to the agency

Serial Meetings

- Serial Meetings – Expressly Prohibited
 - “Use of direct communication, personal intermediaries, or technological devices employed by a majority of the legislative body members in order to develop a collective concurrence as to action to be taken on an item by the legislative body is prohibited.”

Serial Meetings

Ways Serial Meetings Can Happen

- Personal Meeting
- Telephone
- E-mail (especially “reply all”)
- Written Correspondence
- Use of Intermediaries
- Social Networking Sites such as Facebook and Twitter

Social Media

SB 992 – Effective January 1, 2021

- Members of a legislative body may not:
 - Discuss agency business with a majority of members of the same legislative body, including communicating, posting, sharing, commenting, or using digital icons (e.g., “likes,” emojis, etc.); or
 - Respond directly to another member’s communication, comment or post if the two are on the same legislative body and the topic concerns agency business.

Serial Meetings

Elements of a Serial Meeting

- Series of communications
- Between less than a quorum
- But taken as a whole involves the majority
- Concurrence
 - Advances or clarifies the understanding of an issue
 - Facilitates an agreement or compromise among members
 - Advances the ultimate resolution of an issue

Serial Meetings

Two types of Serial Meetings

1. Chain

- Member A speaks to Member B who speaks with Member C about a particular matter and in the process they all form a collective concurrence on a matter

2. Hub and Spoke

- An intermediary acts as the hub of a wheel with members relaying information back and forth to each other through the hub, and in the process a majority of the legislative body develops a collective concurrence

Serial Meetings

Serial Meeting Exceptions

- While the Brown Act prohibits serial meetings, it explicitly allows one-on-one communications by a non-member (i.e., staff) with members of the legislative body
- But does NOT allow sharing of views, comments, concerns, etc. of different members

Serial Meetings

E-mail Tips

- Refrain from “reply all” in e-mails
- Ensure that any individual e-mails do not become a serial meeting
- Take caution
- Ensure compliance with law
